NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK!
APRIL 8-14

OPEN HOUSE

The Morton Grove Public Library will open National Library Week with an Open House on Sunday, April 8 from 2:00 to 4:30.

Tours of the Library will be conducted and refreshments served by the Friends of the Library. The historical film of Niles Twp. "The Remembering Eye" will be shown and the Local History Room will be open for browsing.

Various displays will be presented throughout the Library, including a display of handmade quilts in the Baxter Room, a collection of materials for blind and physically handicapped people, and a special display of books, records and tapes for foreign speaking people or those wishing to learn a foreign language.

Everyone is cordially invited to come and get acquainted with their Morton Grove Library!

ELDERHOSTEL

No one is ever too old to go back to school or to reach out to new experiences! This basic truth inspired the ELDERHOSTEL program which will be explained in a lecture on Thursday, March 22 at 7:30 by Dr. Leona Mirza of North Park College.

ELDERHOSTEL is a network of colleges and universities which offer special low-cost, short-term residential academic programs for adults over 60. Hostelers take one to three courses, experience a taste of contemporary campus life and meet interesting people from a variety of backgrounds.

Come and hear about this stimulating educational movement and its benefits for you!

STRING QUARTET

The Morton Grove Library is pleased to present, in concert, "The Governors State University String Quartet" on Sunday, March 25 at 2:30 in the Baxter Room.

Each member of the GSU String Quartet is a distinguished musician and chamber artist: Raya Kodesh-Beatty, first violin; Steven Bjella, second violin; Robert Shamo, viola, and Alan Rostoker, cello.

The ensemble's repertoire range from the traditional to avant-garde and the program will include selections by Mozart, Borodin, Warren and Gershwin.

Enjoy a Spring afternoon of beautiful music at the Library on March 25!

QUILT TALK & EXHIBIT

The Library will open the new Spring season of exhibits with a display of beautiful quilts in the Baxter Room.

Ila Nuccio, expert quilter and teacher, will present a "Quilt Talk" on Thursday, March 15 at 7:30. She will explain the patterns of the quilts on display, some of which were made in the Quilting Class, held at the Library on Wednesday evenings.

Everyone is invited to come to the "Quilt Talk" and enjoy the exhibit which will continue through March.

****

The Library will be closed on Easter Sunday, April 22 and Sunday, May 27 and Monday, May 28, Memorial Day Weekend.

BOOK REVIEW

"Night Sky" by Clare Francis, will be reviewed by Barbara Todd on Sun. April 1 and Thursday, April 5 at 2:30.

Set in the years between 1935 and 1945 in Europe, this superb novel focuses on the discovery of shortwave radar and the heroism of a young Englishwoman working with the French underground. Exciting story - don't miss it!

HOW TO REDUCE TAXES

Gene Mackevich, author of "The Woman's Money Book" and vice-president of E.F.Hutton, will speak on "How To Reduce Taxes" on Wed. April 4 at 7:30. Generating more after-tax income and providing greater liquidity will be discussed. A question and answer period will follow the lecture.

DIVORCE SEMINAR

The problems and legalities concerning divorce and child custody will be discussed in a "DIVORCE SEMINAR", presented on Wed., April 11 at 2:30 and 7:30 by David Mattenson, senior partner at Kanter & Mattenson, Ltd.

Mr. Mattenson specializes in marital and family law and his seminar will include no-fault divorce, division of property, and visitation rights.

BACK ON TRACK

Suffering from back pain? Come and hear Dr. Donald Garrett put your "Back on Track" on Wed.,March 14 at 7:30.

Dr. Garrett is a chiropractic physician and specializes in Metabolic Therapy which concentrates on balancing the glands of the body. His lecture will also focus on exercise as a deterrent to back pain.

THE FLOWER CYCLE

The Library will greet Spring with a demonstration-lecture, "The Flower Cycle-From Propagation to a Beautiful Bouquet", presented on Wed., March 28 at 7:30.

Carl Jacobson, Lincoln Park horticulturist, will discuss raising flowers and arranging them, with his demonstration bouquet as a prize for some lucky member of the audience.

THE TOTAL IMAGE

Coordination in wardrobe and make-up for each individual's coloring is the new rule in fashion and a demonstration-lecture, "THE TOTAL IMAGE" on Wed., March 21 at 7:30 will help provide this color sense for Spring.

The speaker will be Diana McClean, who will demonstrate how to "color you beautiful!

EGG ART WORKSHOP

Make your own beautiful Easter eggs by coming to our EGG ART WORKSHOP on Saturday, April 7 and Saturday, April 14. Both sessions will begin at 1:00 and end at 3:00.

The Workshop will be conducted by Mickey Nichols, an artist from "Mostly Handmade Shop" in Evanston and she asks participants to bring their own uncooked white eggs. There will be a small fee for materials and a limited registration will be taken, in person, at the Readers Service Desk, beginning Mon., March 26.

DOG CARE

Attention, dog lovers and owners! The Library is presenting "Dog Care - Preventative Medicine" on Thurs., April 5 at 7:30. This important lecture will be presented by Dr. Emil Baukert, veterinarian at Riser Animal Hospital in Skokie. Dr. Baukert will answer questions after the program.

SUMMER PHOTOGRAPHS

Summer is coming with wonderful opportunities to take good pictures! "Summer Photographs" for Snapshooters" will be given for camera buffs on Thurs., May 3 at 7:30 by Brian Motsumoto from Skokie Camera Shop.

Mr. Motsumoto will give suggestions for both instamatic and 35 mm. camera owners and the audience is requested to bring their cameras.

ANTIQUES - NEW OR OLD?

It is often very difficult to recognize an authentic antique, so James Mowery, antique expert, will help solve that problem with his lecture, "Antiques - New or Old?" on Wed., May 16 at 7:30. Mr. Mowery also requests the audience to bring some small antiques for evaluation.

FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

The Orchard Mental Health Center will present a series of discussions on family relationships in the Library Board Room and will provide some individual counseling as well. Please consult the Calendar on Page 2 for topics, dates and times.

TIPS ON HEATING & AIR-CONDITIONING

Be prepared for a hot summer by coming to the Library to hear "Tips on Air-Conditioning and Heating" on Thurs., April 26 at 7:30.

Joseph Kenron, Morton Grove resident and heating expert, will speak from a consumer's point of view on the purchasing and maintenance of air-conditioning and heating units, emphasizing the good brands on the market today.

Don't Forget Book Discussions

MEDICARE AND SOCIAL SECURITY

Two lectures on recent changes in Medicare and Social Security will be presented on Wed., May 9 at 7:30 and Thurs., May 10 at 2:30.

Arzetta Hults, Field Representative for the Glenview and Evanston Social Security offices will be the speaker.

FINANCIAL PROGRAMS

Two timely financial programs will be presented this Spring for your benefit and information. On Thurs., March 29, Fred Fischer, Morton Grove resident and District Manager of IDS, will speak on the importance of IRA investments.

On Wed., April 25 at 7:30, Gustin Financial Services, a Morton Grove firm, will discuss real estate as a limited partnership.

RAILWAY JOURNEYS & TRAVELOGUES

The last film in the series, "Great Railway Journeys" entitled "Three Miles High", a trip into the Peruvian Andes, will be shown on Tues., March 6 at 2:30 & 7:30.

However, a personal view of train travel will continue on Tuesdays with "A Trip on the Trans-Siberian Railroad", presented by Milton Shoberg and "The Trains of Europe", presented by Bill Boyd.

Spring travelogues will take you to Switzerland, Chicago, and famous European cities. Please consult the Calendar on Page 2 for dates and times and join us for exciting travel!

GANDHI

The monumental film masterpiece, GANDHI, will have a special showing at the Library on Mon., March 19 at 2:00 and 7:00. Please consult the Calendar on Page 2 for a complete listing of films.
